window.addEvent('domready', function() { new TableSort('table_13', ',', '.'); }); By default, the table is sorted by date (Begin). By clicking one of the column headers, you can resort it (JavaScript required). Of course, the table has been styled with CSS. Do not forget to provide a small summary of the table's content in order to make it accessible.

If you log in to the front end as Donna Evans or John Smith, you should see the protected page of the class you are attending as a subpage of this page.
